ICTDT2022
V International Conference on Tourism Dynamics and Trends

INTRODUCTION

The V International Conference on Tourism Dynamics and Trends (ICTDT2022) will be held at the Universidad Europea de Canarias. In line with its interdisciplinary character, the Conference Organizing Committee will welcome academics from all over the world to address the issue of the impact of digital transformations on economic and social developments in the hospitality and tourism sector.

The main goal of the V International Conference on Tourism Dynamics and Trends is fostering a network of scholars and experts that discuss research ideas and disseminate their knowledge.

“New frontiers in the tourism and hospitality industry” is selected as the conference theme of the V International Conference on Tourism Dynamics and Trends. ICTDT2022 wants to shed light on the digital transformations in tourism and hospitality that are affecting social and economic developments. The conference theme will be interdisciplinary in nature, with various research angles that will be discussed in the plenary sessions.
